

PRESS RELEASE

Saleri Aftermarket at Automechanika Frankfurt 2026: bringing innovation and OE expertise to the IAM sector

Sesto Fiorentino (Florence), 09 June 2026 – Saleri Aftermarket, the Italian company dedicated to the Independent Aftermarket (IAM), will take part in Automechanika Frankfurt 2026, the leading international platform for the automotive industry. From 8-12 September, the company will welcome visitors at Hall 5.0 – Stand B77 in a 98 sqm exhibition space designed to display the SIL and Ruville brands and their product ranges.

During the fair, Saleri Aftermarket will present its comprehensive portfolio dedicated to Thermal Management, with a focus on the most advanced solutions derived from its Original Equipment (OE) expertise. Indeed, this OE-driven approach continues to shape the company's aftermarket product range, ensuring high performance, reliability, and technological innovation.

Among the highlights on display is the company's electromechanical water pump, a clear example of Saleri Aftermarket's ability to transfer cutting-edge OE solutions into the IAM market. In addition, visitors can discover the adaptive switchable water pump - patented by Saleri - a product that reflects the Group's ongoing investment in Thermal Management research and development.

Automechanika Frankfurt represents the perfect stage to showcase Saleri Aftermarket's philosophy on technology, know-how and quality. These attributes are rooted in its solid heritage as an Original Equipment manufacturer. Indeed, the strong continued connection with the OE sector is a cornerstone of Saleri Aftermarket's identity: it enables it to bring know-how, quality standards, and advanced technologies, into its aftermarket products.

This approach enables Saleri Aftermarket to offer solutions that meet the evolving needs of distributors and industry professionals, ensuring consistent performance and long-term reliability.

Automechanika Frankfurt 2026 will provide a valuable opportunity for Saleri Aftermarket to strengthen relationships with partners, customers and leading companies from around the world.

Join us at Hall 5.0 - Stand B77 to discover what Saleri Aftermarket has to offer.
